

WEST BALTIMORE CAREER EXPO & BLOCK PARTY

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17TH 11AM – 5PM
CENTER FOR URBAN FAMILIES, 2201 N MONROE ST, 21217

FOR:

ALL Baltimore Job Seekers looking to improve their job prospects! 1B4J training programs will be recruiting job-seekers for their upcoming classes. Ex-offenders welcome.

WHAT:

- Work readiness resources, mock interviews & resume help
- Legal aid and expungement services
- Mental health and financial resources
- Help with child support issues or challenges
- Bring friends and family for music, games and refreshments!
- Kids Zone and a recycled art activity for children led by Art with a Heart
- Performances by youth poet laureate, Hannah Sawyer
- ... and more!

CONTACT:

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT JULIE BROOKS AT 1B4J@OEDWORKS.COM OR VISIT:
<http://moed.baltimorecity.gov/one-baltimore-jobs>

SPONSORED BY: The Annie E. Casey Foundation, Mayor's Office of Employment Development, and Associated Black Charities

EVENT PARTNERS: TheCONNECT, Page Bailey Consulting, BTI, Center for Urban Families, Humanim, Civic Works, Catholic Charities, Maryland New Directions, New Pathways, Caroline Center, JOTF, JARC, South Baltimore Learning Center, Vehicles for Change, Youth Empowered Society, Bon Secours Community Works, UPS, Maryland Legal Aid, Maximus Child Support Services, Roberta's House, Homeless Person's Representation Project, Civil Justice Center, The Think Project, Baltimore City, The Think Project, Black Girls Vote, Boys Coming of Age, Bon Secours Financial Coaching, Behavioral Health Systems Baltimore, Pennsylvania Avenue Branch-Enoch Pratt Free Library, Baltimore Corps, Baltimore City Police Department